The Road to Publishing

By Dawn Brotherton

It's a long, twisting road to publishing—don't let anyone tell you differently. There's no one path, and the results are as varied as the methods to get there. Before you make a decision affecting your life, you owe it to yourself to do some homework. The Road to Publishing describes options available to you from self- to traditional publishing, providing helpful hints along the way. Through exercises and thought-provoking questions, the path will become clearer.

Grab your notebook and let's get started.
