Wind the Clock

By Dawn Brotherton & Lawrence Stutzriem

Bathed in the beauty of Germany on a storybook assignment, Major Jackie Austin is revered across Spangdahlem Air Base as an officer and leader. The Air Force is looking to promote her ahead of the pack. From the outside, she's got it all, to include a fighter pilot husband, the handsome and popular Stan "Mace" Mason. In truth, things are fraying behind the scenes, as the compromises of a two-career military marriage take their toll. All of it factors into the greatest tragedy Jackie will ever experience, yet she'll have no time to heal. The Air Force Office of Special Investigations' lead investigator Chris Marquette has her locked in his sights. Only Jackie Austin can save herself, even if it means walking straight into a den of terrorists.

Dawn Brotherton is an award-winning author and featured speaker at writing and publishing seminars. When it comes to exceptional writing, Dawn draws on her experience as a retired colonel in the US Air Force as well as a softball coach. Dawn is the author of the Jackie Austin Mysteries, which include The Obsession, Wind the Clock, and her upcoming novel Truth Has No Agenda. Dawn has also written four books of The Lady Tigers Series centering around girls' fastpitch softball, and the Global Ebook Bronze Award Winner, Untimely Love. She is a contributing author to the non-fiction A-10s over Kosovo, sharing stories from her deployment.

Major General (retired) Lawrence Stutzriem served over thirty years in the United States Air Force. He's a fighter pilot, having flown the F-4 Phantom, the F-16 Fighting Falcon, and the A-10 Thunderbolt II. He now works as a national security consultant, a business developer in the aerospace industry, and a volunteer supporting America's wounded warriors. He resides in Colorado and enjoys warrior fitness, air power advocacy, military strategy, and meteorology.
